Middle East Nations To Get Big 3 Arms

State, Federal Approval Are Awaited on Bids for Hospital

Proposed Contract Totals Are Believed Within Fund Limits

Low bids for the main structure of the Navarro County Memorial Hospital opened Wednesday afternoon by the commissioners court totaled $1,207,605.91, approximately what had been anticipated. This left approximately $400,000 for the nurses' home, equipment, roads and walks and architects' fees, as had been estimated by the advisory board.

Joe D. Huffstutter, county judge, said the commissioners court would pass the resolutions awarding the contracts to the low acceptable bidders as soon as approval was received from the U.S. Hospital Division, and the state hospital division, Texas State Health Department.

The bids were opened at 2 p.m. in the county courtroom. The courtroom was almost filled with bidders and interested persons, including the county advisory board.

A week is expected to start within a few weeks on the 100-bed memorial hospital, to be dedicated to the war heroes of Navarro county.

The structure will be located on the 29.73-acre site near the IOOF Home in northwest Corsicana between Highway 22 and West Second Avenue.

When completed, the five-story structure will replace the present P. & S. Hospital, a county institution, in use as a hospital since 1916.

Three Binaggio Aides Indicted For Tax Evasion

KANSAS CITY, May 25.—(AP)—Three benchmen of the Charles Binaggio Northside political organization, including gambler Walter L. Rainey, were indicted by a federal grand jury here today on charges of income tax evasion. The other two were Samuel (Jew Baby) Goldberg, and Jonny (The Mag) Mangiaracina.

Both Rainey and Mangiaracina were also indicted on three counts and Goldberg on five. The government charged Goldberg had not even bothered to make reports for the years 1947-48 when it contends he had a gross income of $68,631.

It was the second time within a week that the grand jury, which has been investigating the underworld here since last September, has struck at figures close to Charles Binaggio, the Northside political boss, and with his top henchman, Charles Gargotta, was skin-ganger style in his First District Democratic club rooms on Truman road April 5.

Thundershowers Weather Forecast

By The Associated Press. A cool front moved into the Texas Panhandle today, headed southeast. The bureau thought it would bring thundershowers to many parts of the state. At mid-morning, the front was between Amarillo and Lubbock.

The weather over Texas was partly cloudy to cloudy. Temperatures, except in the Panhandle, were mild. Amarillo had a reading of 61 degrees and Dalhart reported 55 degrees after the cool wave passed through.

Nine Darrington Prison Farm Inmates In Major Self-Mutilation Outbreak

HOUSTON, May 25.—(AP)—Nine convicts slashed their "feet strings" Wednesday night and another slit a gash in his arm in the worst outbreak of self-mutilation in the prison system in the past two years, it was reported today. All of the convicts are inmates of Darrington Farm in Brazoria county.

Of the nine inmates who slashed their heel strings, eight were from Houston and one from Dallas. The convict who cut his arm apparently in a suicide attempt is Oliver Mann, serving 12 years from Grayson and Lubbock counties for robbery.

The self-mutilation cases are the first reported in the system since February and bring to 13 the number of mutilation cases reported in the system so far this year. These are the first such cases reported at Darrington farm since July 11, 1949.

Warden J. E. Barton said today that all of the convicts who had mutilated themselves in the farm tank late Wednesday night "are cut pretty badly." They were given tetanus shots and their wounds

Atomic Plant Construction Is Idled By Wildcat Strike Of AFL Workers

OAK RIDGE, Tenn., May 25.—(AP)—A mammoth atomic plant construction project was shut down completely today by a wildcat walkout of AFL workers.

A snowballing walkout of members of the laborers and hodcarriers began Wednesday without warning just after peaceful arbitration of a dispute involving the atomic energy commission reported.

Some 3,000 workers are affected by the walkout. The AFL crafts involved are members of the Knoxville Building Trades Council, whose officials were not immediately available for comment.

Picket lines were established outside the various entrances to this atomic city early today, and by mid-morning pickets also appeared near a gate to the restricted area.

One union official, John S. Turner, a consulting consultant for that power-planting corporation, said that mankind's desire and seeks—could start in Asia. Here, where danger is great, the opportunity to avert and overcome it is correspondingly great."

Romulo, president of the United Nations General Assembly and the Philippines Security of Foreign Affairs, said in a radio address:

"We are often told that if another World War should engulf the earth it might possibly start in Asia. But it is equally true that peace—lasting peace—could start in Asia. Here, where danger is great, the opportunity to avert and overcome it is correspondingly great."

Romulo said the conference which opens Friday "is a step forward in a movement of Asian nations toward a regional association and regional action within the United Nations."

He emphasized that the conference is non-military in character.

Two nations, South Korea and Nationalist China, refused to attend because of that feature. Australia, India, Pakistan, Thailand, Indonesia and the Philippines.

Red Attempt On Ladrone Islands Reported Beaten

STATEN ISLAND, May 25.—(AP)—The Nationalists today reported they repulsed another Chinese Communist attempt to snatch the Wanhsan (Ladrone) Islands for the second time in a week.

The defense ministry said 3,000 Red invaders were killed and 70 tanks captured, including the ship of warship. It added that Nationalist warships sank one 400-ton landing craft, several gunboats and more than 20 motor-driven junks.

The Ladrones are off the Southeast China coast between Hong Kong and Macao. They are a naval base, from which the Nationalists blockade the Pearl River estuary, main water route to Canton.

Meantime, Formosa's Gov. K. C. Wu predicted "famine, Communist misrule and oppression" would cause a mass revolt against the Reds on mainland China in the fall. He declared the revolt would pave the way for Nationalist Chinese counter-attack in November and a full scale mainland assault next year.

He charged Mao Tse-Tung, Chinese Red leader, is ready to reduce the population of China, from 450,000,000 to 150,000,000. He did not explain but asserted "transport of food from Red China to Manchuria and Communist refusal to accept the latter's demands" caused the famine.

The prosecutor's office announced the arrest of 112 persons, including one candidate for the national assembly. He said they were plotted to overthrow the Republic.

Two high-ranking officers of the Republican army were among those arrested. He didn't name them.

Negro Candidate Addressed Group Tuesday Night

Dr. P. E. Womack, Austin Negro Methodist minister, candidate for lieutenant governor of Texas on the Democratic ticket, exhorted the race to remain separate and distinct, imitating the Jew in that respect, and rapped Dixiecrats Tuesday night. He also said that 99 per cent of Texas negroes did not want to attend the "Jefferson-Jackson Day Dinner" May 28 of white Democrats in Austin.

Womack addressed a democratic banquet at the Big Bethel A. M. E. church where he plans to file his application for place on the Democratic primary ticket about June 1 with John C. Callahan, state Democratic chairman.

"God has created us for a specific purpose... to make a separate and distinct contribution to this human world... all that your candidate has said, simply comes down to this—that he believes that our democratic political pattern will fit perfectly within incomplete unions of groups become partners in our law-making bodies," he said.

The candidate rapped scat-er-crow statements of Dixiecrats about "inter-marriage" and the term "social equality" as goals of the negro Democrats instead of "educational, economic and political justice."

Discussing the Austin dinner he added:

"We know the pulse-beat of 99 per cent of the negroes of Texas, we hasten to say that the men only represent themselves, which is their democratic right. As far as we are concerned, we are not willing to have men suspect the self-respect, the pride and manhood of our race for a 'mess of pottage'—a Democratic dinner." To our way of thinking a Democratic dinner is not necessarily an essential part of Democracy. To insist on attending the dinner in Austin might be like the hawk-hustle while missing the kernel of wheat—Democracy. The negro now is after something that is more enduring than 'a meal.' Get that first!"

SPY CASE

CONTINUED FROM FIRST PAGE—whose name he did not recall—and that of the man whom he had passed information.

FBI agents were reported to have produced evidence that Gold had met Fuchs in Santa Fe, N. M., in 1945. At that time Fuchs was associated with the atomic bomb project at Los Alamos, N. M., and held in high regard.

There was some speculation on Capitol Hill that the third man in the espionage triangle—the one who got the secrets Gold is charged with receiving—was a member of the Russian embassy staff here. This person, referred to in official documents as "John Doe," is believed to be in the Soviet Union now.

Gold was charged with committing espionage during wartime, an offense which is punishable by death or up to 30 years in prison. After a quick arraignment in Philadelphia he was hurried off to prison in lieu of a $100,000 bond.

Gold, active in Washington means, will have to postpone our visit slightly," said Assistant FBI Director Hugh H. Clegg, who is leading the questioning of Fuchs in England.

The British and American officials received a bundle of secret documents by plane from New York Wednesday. The papers were carried by special couriers who kept them under guard all during the trip. What connection, if any, they might have with the Gold case was not disclosed.

Clegg would not say whether the intensified questioning of Fuchs might lead to new arrests in this country. But many lawmakers indicated that they will be surprised if new arrests don't follow.

Sawyer moved into the foreground as an economic adviser when Truman dispatched him on a nationwide survey of business conditions and unemployment last year. Other White House chores have since been piled on.

To help in organizing the Commerce Department as the core of the federal transportation program, Sawyer acquired the experienced administrator, Maj. Gen. Philip B. Fleming, a 31-year veteran undersecretary for transportation. Fleming was chairman of the abolished maritime commission.

Fleming's appointment requires Senate confirmation.

The union, reportedly asking a wage hike from 85 cents an hour to $1.25, and the company were pledged to abide by the decision of the Presidentially appointed panel. Workers ended a seven-day strike April 21 when the body agreed to take the case.

At the outset, the President announced an agreement with Britain and France to supply arms to Israel and the Arab states for the defense of those Middle East countries. In a separate statement, he explained that the agreement will strengthen security and contribute to the well-being of the peoples in that area.

Until he can confer with Secretary of State Acheson, Truman withheld comment on the statement by Trygve Lie, secretary general of the United Nations, that there is a possibility of negotiations to end the cold war.

Texans Honored For Service In Farm Activities

WASHINGTON, May 25—(UPI)—Three Texans are among 65 employees of the agriculture department awarded silver medals today for superior service.

Oliver R. Brown of the Farmers Home Administration in Decatur, a native of Weston, Tex., and former resident of McKinney, Santa Anna and Plano, Tex., won recognition for work in converting worn out eroded lands into a productive dairy territory.

Alfred Bailey Jolly, for the past 20 years Dallas county agent, was lauded for "his successful advocacy of scientific farming."

David H. Clegg, soil conservation service official in San Antonio, won acclaim for his research in ranch land grasses in Texas, particularly with King Ranch bluestem grass.

Superior service awards also went to several agriculture department officials who formerly resided or went to school in Texas.

These included Dr. Lyle T. Alexander of the department's experimental farms of Beltsville, Md., who was born in Athens, Texas; Henry Howard Fennell Goodwill, Okla., who was in soil conservation work at Amarillo in the 1930s; Duthiel W. Fortenberry Columbia, Miss., who got a B. S. degree at Texas A. and M. in 1934; George E. Herrington, Shafter, Calif., a native of Jackson, Texas, who attended East Texas State College for two years; LaVerne A. Henson, Beaver, Okla., a graduate of the Booker, Texas, high school.

Northwest Texas Methodists Show Top Membership

BIG SPRING, May 25—(UPI)—Reports made to the 41st annual Northwest Texas Methodist Conference in session here show a membership gain of four per cent during the past year.

Dr. J. O. Haymes, Lubbock district superintendent, said that the conference now has a membership of 94,202, an increase of 3,426 for the year.

He said donations increased nearly 20 per cent. Gifts for all purposes increased $750,000 for a total of $4,129,000.

Total building projects during the past year included $1,141,000 spent on 17 new churches and nine new parsonages.

The conference body approved the joining of the theological schools at Southern Methodist University and Southwestern University. The proposal also must be approved by other conferences.

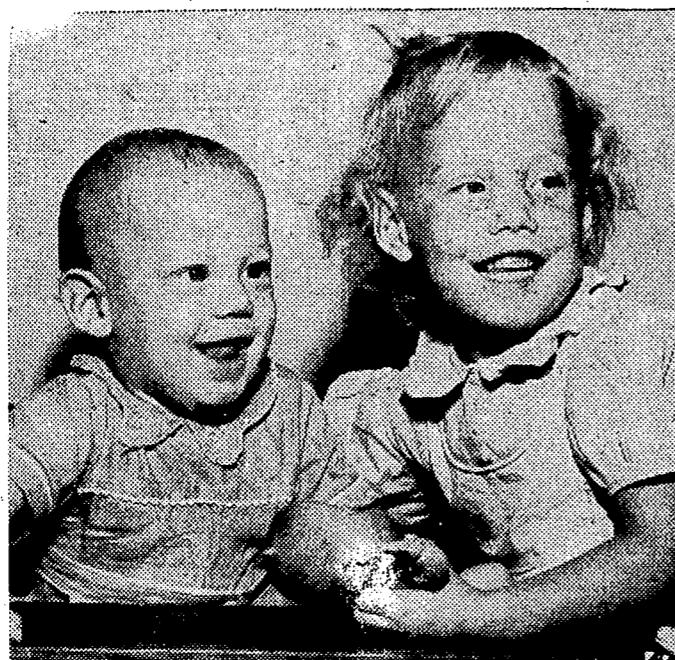

Child Is Fatally Stabbed In Fall

FORT WORTH, May 25—(UPI)—A 3-year-old boy was stabbed fatally here when a sliver of glass punctured his chest as he fell while going to get ice cream from a street vendor.

Victim of the freak accident was Michael Glenn Noblett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Noblett. Mrs. Noblett and Michael's twin brother, Russell, were at the child's side when he fell on a sidewalk, breaking an empty soda jar, with which he had been playing.

A glass fragment severed a blood vessel near his heart. He was dead on arrival at a hospital.

Cancer Campaign Donations Needed

Navarro counties are urged to send their $1 to W. E. McKinney, county chairman of the American Cancer Society, Inc. N. Sutton, Roberts, treasurer, or the Dallas Sun, to finish the campaign as soon as possible. Approximately $800 is needed.

Twenty-two million people now living will die of cancer if the present rate continues unchanged. The proceeds from the campaign goes toward research in combatting this disease.

The research effort is designed to find the ultimate answer to the cancer riddle—toward saving more lives now, according to officials of the organization.

Tax Dodgers Are Given Last Chance To Avoid Trouble

WASHINGTON, May 25.—(UPI)—The House Ways and Means Committee has voted to give tax dodgers a chance to avoid fines and prison sentences by appearing voluntarily and settling their tax bills.

Some members have estimated many millions might come into the federal till from penitent tax dodgers.

The committee adopted a resolution saying:

"The commissioner of internal revenue is hereby authorized to accept voluntary disclosures of underpayment of tax and shall issue rules and regulations which shall set forth the time within which such disclosures may be made, and the procedures which must be followed in making such disclosures."

"The commissioner shall not refer to the department of justice for prosecution any case in which the taxpayer has made a full and complete disclosure in compliance with such rules and regulations et cetera."

The language will be written into a tax bill the committee is preparing.

TOURIST ATTRACTION—Thousands annually visit shrines to General Sam Houston on the campus of Sam Houston State Teachers College in Huntsville, the home and burial place of Texas' first president. The Houston home, top, in its original location, is furnished throughout, many pieces the personal possessions of the family. The Memorial museum contains relics of Texas history from the early beginnings to the present. Among them is Santa Anna's bronze-trimmed saddle being examined by Dr. J. L. Clark, head of the college's history department and curator of the museum.

50,000 Expected To Visit Shrine At Huntsville

HUNTSVILLE, May 25—Between now and the last of September some 50,000 persons will stop in Huntsville to visit the many shrines dedicated to the memory of Gen. Sam Houston. This was predicted after a check-through of registration books kept since 1885 in the Sam Houston Memorial museum, conveniently located on U. S. Highway 75 as the main "stopping point" and headquarters for this "shrine city" where Houston made his home from 1847 until his death.

Park Adjacent.

Surrounding the Monticello-like museum structure in a beautiful

15-acre park are the original

Houston home, carriage house, log kitchen, law office and Steamboat House, where the soldier-statesman died in 1863.

Across town in Oakwood cemetery is the grave of Sam Houston marked with a 12-foot tall

Texas granite monument bearing a life-size carving of the "Paper" mounted on his favorite steed. Leading to the grave, as a spur of U. S. Highway 45, is Memorial Drive—its two block length recognized as "the shortest highway in the world."

Probably the most talked about points of interest are the many relics of the battle of San Jacino, the Alamo, and the memories of Houston's critiques, cane, flag, and pistols and Santa An-na's saddle, sword, dagger, walking stock and field glass. Thousands of other mementoes of Texas history bear descriptive tags in the showcases of the "open all day" museum.

The Houston home is situated in the exact location where Tex-with pieces representative of Houston's time, much of it his family's personal possessions.

Two Log Structures.

Two log structures, the kitchen, a replica, and the law office originally equipped just as Houston and his family used them.

A carriage house contains transportation and agricultural equipment used in Texas during Houston's time.

Paintings of buildings and houses connected with the general's life and family portraits adorn the walls of the Steamboat

House, which was moved to Memorial park as part of Texas' centennial celebration.

The park itself is the original College campus and the original 132-acre Houston farm. Hundreds of different species of trees and plants representative of all Texas surround a small lake dug in the shape of the state.

In addition to the tourist visitors, the shrine annually attracts another 25,000 school children, who come throughout the year to learn their history lessons "out of books."

Historic School Unit.

The admission-free park and buildings are maintained by the college, which too is a part of Texas history as the oldest state-supported educational institution.

It still uses the first building erected in Texas for higher education, now 98 years old.

Just as proud of its heritage, the city of Huntsville maintains its tree-lined streets and stately homes as sights of beauty for the hundreds who daily linger awhile in this "Mount Vernon of Texas."

More Furniture Is Being Bought In United States

WASHINGTON, May 25.—(AP)—

Americans are buying furniture at the unprecedented rate of $3,000,000,000 a year, the commerce department said today.

The department said the chief causes are (1) fat pocketbooks, with personal incomes at $20,- 000,000,000 a year, rate of taxes, and (2) the record high building boom, providing vast acreages of living space to be furnished.

Credit was rated of minor influence in the furniture sales boom. Actually, the department said, smaller proportion of furniture is bought on the installment plan now—around 45 per cent than in the last three years before the war.

The department's $3,000,000,000

a year furniture sales figure excludes outlays for household appliances and equipment. It compares with the previous peak of $2,900,000,000 in 1948 and $2,800,-

000,000 last year.

"The average household at the present time spends about $70 a year on furniture, a study in the department's May "Survey of Current Business" showed.

QUICK PASTRY TRICKS

QUICK CREAM PUFFS... From home-made mix...

QUICK-MIX PASTRY... Its uses are legion...

By CECILY BROWNSTONE Associated Press Food Editor.

Here's baking news. With the following recipe you can make a basic mix ready to be used in a variety of ways. The mix was developed during four years of research in the test kitchens of a large food concern (Swift and Co.). You do the messy job of measuring the flour, baking powder, salt and shortening ahead of time and then add the other ingredients needed for each individual dish later. Here are recipes for the mix and two delicious desserts to be made from it:

Basic Quick-Mix

Ingredients—4 1/2 cups sifted all-purpose flour, 2 1/2 tablespoons double-acting baking powder, 1 1/2 teaspoons salt, 1 cup shortening.

Method—Stir flour, baking powder and salt together well. Sift into a large bowl. Add shortening. Use finger tips or pastry blender to distribute shortening throughout dry ingredients until the mixture resembles coarse corn-meal. The quick-mix is not used immediately, store in a closed container. pastry. Makes about 6 1/2 cups. Recipe may be doubled and kept on-hand to save time.

Quick-Mix Pastry

Ingredients—2 cups quick-mix (do not pack), 1 1/4 cup butter or margarine, 1 cup hot water (scant).

Method—Heat butter in water until melted. Sprinkle over the mix, stirring with a spatula or fork. Turn dough out and pat. Shape into a ball and cover with the paper. Chill at least 30 minutes in refrigerator. Roll out for pastry as needed. Makes 2 eight-inch crusts.

Quick-Mix Cream Puffs

Ingredients—1 cup quick-mix (do not pack), 3 1/4 cup boiling water, 2 eggs.

Method—Add mix to boiling water in a sauce pan. Stir over low heat about 1 minute until dough is smooth, follows the spoon and forms in a ball. Remove from heat immediately. Add eggs one at a time, stirring and beating. Beat vigorously. Drop by spoonfuls on baking sheet. Bake in a moderately hot (400°F) oven for 15 minutes. Then reduce heat and make in a moderate (350°F) oven 20 minutes more. Let stand in warm oven (with door open) about 10 minutes to dry out. Makes 10 large puffs.

O'Daniel Seeks More Radio Time

FORT WORTH, May 25.—(P)—W. Lee O'Daniel is reported negotiating for a series of half hour Sunday afternoon programs on radio station WBAP.

A salesman for the Star-Telegram radio station, A. G. McDonald, said he was negotiating with O'Daniel, former governor and senator.

O'Daniel would not say if he was seeking the time for political or commercial use.

Considerable speculation that O'Daniel plans to run for governor persists.

Polio Incidence Running Ahead Of Same 1949 Period

AUSTIN, May 25.—(AP)—Polio is well on its way to beating the Texas record of last year, the state health officer said today. He reported 38 new cases for the past week, the same number as the week before.

The year's total climbed to 466 cases from 81 counties, almost double the number of polio patients of a year ago. The total for the comparable 1949 period was 234 cases from 59 of the 254 Texas counties.

"We're trying to contain polio within affected counties, but it is utterly unpredictable that it continues to break bounds every week and get into new areas," said Dr. George W. Cox, state health officer.

Burnett county reported its first two cases of 1950, and Edna, Hood, Midland, Orange and Wichita counties each reported their first.

Incidence in other counties: Hill, 1; Harris, 1; Bexar, 1; Tarrant, 1; each; Jim, 1; Nueces and Wharton, 2 each; and Brazos, Cameron, Cooke, Dallas, Lamar, Moore and Red River, 1 each.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Why "Moose" Changed His Mind

Last week, parents were calling Moose Jackson on the phone—and kids were hooting at him in the streets. All because Moose fenced in his field near the depot, where the kids like to play ball.

Moose got sore the way folks acted—refused to budge. Then Doc Sherman, who likes to play center-field himself sometimes, decided to use a little psychology.

Over a friendly glass of beer at Doc's Garden Tavern, Doc says, "Sorry this came up, Moose. We were thinking of asking you to um-pire—what with your professional experience and all." (Moose used to play a little semi-pro ball.)

That did it! Next day Moose put up a stile over his fence. In return, the kids promised not to cause any damage. From where I sit, when you try to understand the other fellow's point of view—like his personal preference for beer or coffee—and then take into consideration the will of the majority, why, things seem to go better all around.

BUREAUCRATS IN RUSSIA

If bureaucracy is a bad thing, as most Americans are brought up to believe, we have at least the comfort of knowing we have no monopoly on it. Russia, from all accounts, has a bureaucracy so numerous that the like has not been seen. This is pointed out by Craig Thompson in his new book, "The Police State; What You Want to Know about the Soviet Union." Every new factory requires the assignment of government supervisors, and the production of more paper work. If bureaucracy stifles initiative and cripples activity, the United States need fear little industrially from the Russians.

All this non-productive personnel has to be supported. This means, as Thompson points out, that any quantity of new factories will not solve the Russian economic situation. To carry on the present type of governmental structure, prices will have to stay high and wages must remain low.

AIDS TO COMMUNISM

Extremes sometimes meet. American isolationists are generally conservative folk who regard Communism with special horror. Here is an estimate of effects made by former Senator John Foster Dulles, new Republican adviser to the secretary of state:

"Those who would have the United States pursue isolationist policies are, whatever they say, de facto accomplices of Soviet Communism in its announced program of encircling and isolating the United States so that it can be strangled into submission. We can save freedom for ourselves only as we engage in the greater effort of saving freedom everywhere."

To have nothing to do with the rest of the world would gratify many Americans. Unfortunately that would mean turning the rest of the world over to Russia. A policy of complete indifference to what is going on elsewhere is like ignoring a fire in the back of the house. It might spread to the front.

LETTER TO CONGRESS

A Midwesterner put a reverse twist on the usual procedure of writing letters to Congress, and obtained an encouraging result. Individuals and clubs are often asked to add their names to form or group letters to congressmen. A resident of Cleveland did it the other way; he wrote an individual letter and sent one copy of it to every member of Congress. He also sent to each one a clipping of an editorial which had appeared in the Cleveland Plain Dealer, and which stimulated him to the enterprise in the first place.

This letter writer received 65 direct replies from senators and representatives, and notes from the secretaries of five others. Most of the respondents took the trouble to analyze the letter and the newspaper clipping and to comment on them.

There is no way of knowing whether this correspondence project will be the cause of any action in Congress, or whether it changed any member's mind about anything, but at least it stirred up thought. And perhaps it stirred up some conversation in Washington.

It is not the intent of this piece to suggest that the way to influence Congress is to send clippings from this column to its members. The lesson of this and many other experiences of individuals is that the personal letter, or telephone or personal call, from a constituent to his representatives does demand and get the attention of those representatives. Cynics may tell you that it is a waste of time to write to your congressman, and such it may be if writing consists of a signature on a form letter. But writing a sincere personal comment is not a waste of time, far from it. It is one of the most fruitful things a citizen can do.

But still through the day Let them play with their toys, and I have to admit We like it that way."

ALABAMA FIGHTING MAN

Capt. John G. Crommelin has not had enough of controversy. After a stormy finish of his career in the Navy, he announces that he will run independently as a senatorial candidate in Alabama.

A bitter critic of the new program of reorganizing and unifying the armed services, Crommelin was charged with feeding confidential information to its congressional foes. On this account he lost his possibility of promotion to rear admiral, and was directed to stop making speeches on the subject. This prohibition has not stopped him, but if he really does run for senator, he presumably will have to resign from the Navy, which already has him on an indefinite furlough.

Alabama politics is already complicated by the fight between the regular Democrats, who supported President Truman in 1948, and the bolting group of Dixiecrats, who voted for Gov. Thurmond. It has not been stated whether Crommelin intends to get involved in this particular controversy. The impression is that he wants to work up public sentiment against the unification of the armed forces. Whether he can attract attention in the midst of a campaign that already bids fair to be vociferous is something which he will soon find out.

NO MORE PRISONERS

All hope of collaboration between the Russians and the Germans ought to be ended. The Kremlin has announced that no more German prisoners will be returned. Russia's own figures a year or two ago indicated that their German human booty consisted of 3,500,000 soldiers. The last shipment brings the total returned to only 1,935,000. Where are the rest?

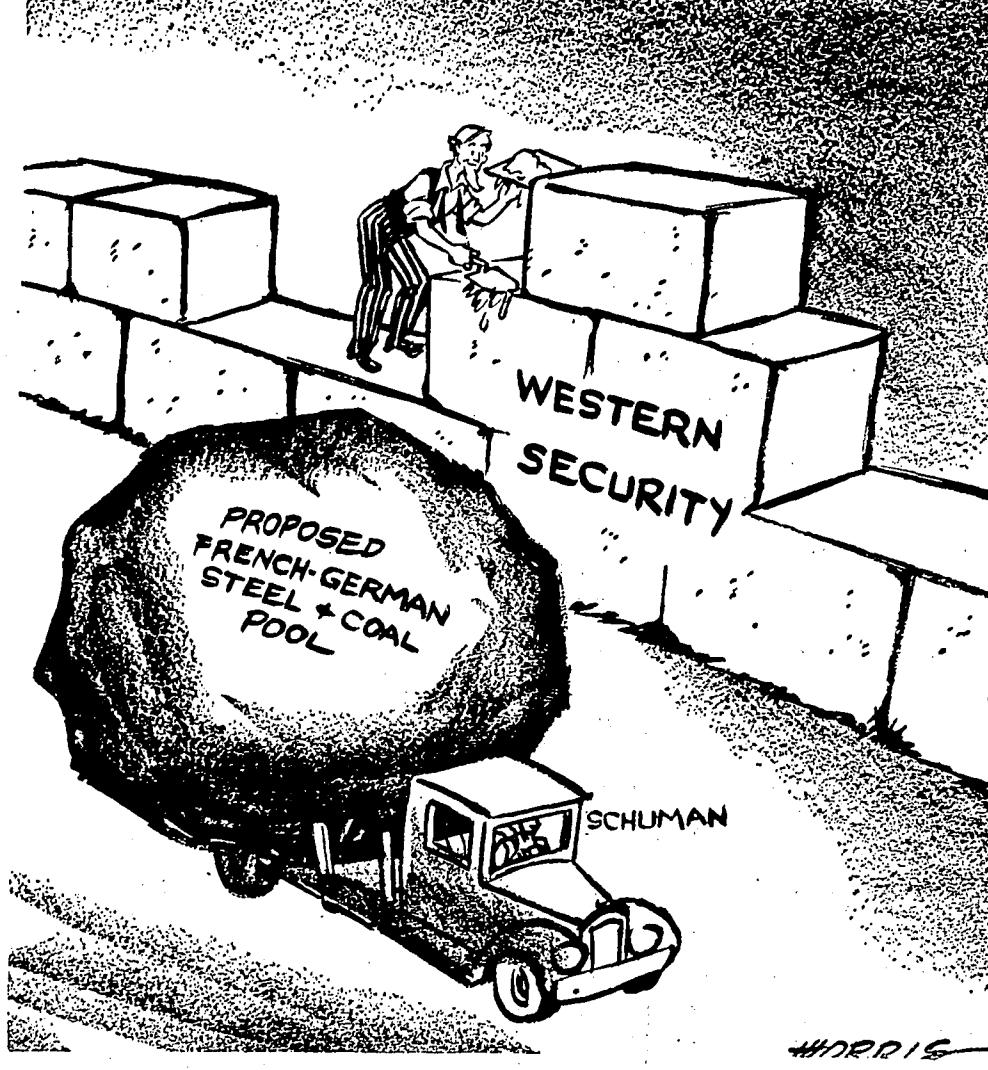

The Germans, and the whole thinking world as well, have a very good idea of the location of these missing ones. They are either dead or on their way thither. Hard work and savage treatment in prison camps have worn all down or will soon.

The reports say that Germany is aghast at the Russian callousness, which matches, possibly surpasses, that of the Nazis. It has inflicted a wound which perhaps no amount of Communist propaganda can heal.

HEARSAY EVIDENCE

Something like two-thirds of the United States senators are lawyers, but it seems to do them little good. One word whose meaning they were undoubtedly taught at one time, but which some seem to have entirely forgotten now is, "hearsay." Almost the first rule of evidence taught to law students is that hearsay testimony is inadmissible in courts. Yet the Senate has been listening to one hearsay statement after another in the McCarthy affair, and betraying no sign that it is not evidence of the highest value.

Prof. Louis Budenz of Fordham University, to take one instance, charged Prof. Owen Lattimore with being a member of "a communist cell" and a Communist helper, his proof being that he was told so. Any justice of the peace worth his salt ought to know enough to interrupt such testimony then and there, and point out that such utterances are of no legal value as evidence. Any information or conclusion which is based on what some third party told a witness, rather than on his own perception, is hearsay evidence, and is not admissible in any American court of law.

Yet congressional committees listen to such evidence, and times appear to lay great importance on it.

THE PORK BARREL

Is the pork barrel inevitable in Congress? Perhaps it is. There has been much talk of economy and budget reforms in the present session, but the familiar "pork barrel" cry was revived when a rivers, harbors and flood control authorization bill went through the House recently. Since the federal government first began paying attention to inland waterways the rivers and harbors bills have carried the pork barrel stamp, and they provide an excellent illustration of how pork barrel bills come into being. Virtually every congressman has a river somewhere in his district, and a great many have harbors. So when a rivers and harbors bill is started, everybody throws a project into it.

The current bill, when finished, came to almost a billion and a half. This poses the question: Do we want economy, or work on the rivers and harbors? Perhaps we could have a little of both, but not without some sorting.

LAZINESS AND PROGRESS

The ants solved their social and political problems a million years ago, and now all they have to do is work all the time. It's about the same with the bees. They're not so infernally busy as the ants, and they take some time off; but they don't seem to enjoy life. They are sadly exploited, too, by a race of lazy giants called men, who seize most of the fruits of their labors and give little in return.

Does all this deflate the importance of thrift and industry? Not necessarily, but it shows the fallacy of sending man to the study of such inferior creatures as the ants and the bees, which are exemplary in their energy but a little short on thought. Physical laziness, on the other hand, is the beginning of wisdom. From it, surprisingly enough, comes progress.

Those traveling the highway are requested to approach the bridges under construction with extreme caution and to co-operate fully with the flagmen. Speed limits will be 25 miles per hour."

Drivers were asked to restrict their use of the highway to necessary travel only during the construction.

Soil Conservation Value Is Cited To Rotary Club

Corsicana Rotarians Wednesday heard about the importance of soil conservation from Dooley Dawson, Houston banker, who is in charge of that city's Second National Bank's agricultural department.

"Everyone is interested in conservation," he said, "because soil is the basis of all industry, manufacturing and the necessities of life. We are living on surpluses now, and if the time ever comes when we don't have these surpluses we will be in for plenty of trouble."

Dawson said Texas has lost 11 million acres of good top soil and he compared this amount as being equal to the size of 22 average Texas counties.

"It's all washing into the Gulf of Mexico," he said.

Resources, the speaker said, are essential and they must be preserved. He also said that the trial growth of the state was being hindered by the lack of water.

He compared Texas' agricultural production with several other states and said Texas was far down the list in amount produced per acre.

Dawson said the problem could be solved only by every individual taking an active part in conservation and using every means of producing more per acre.

Low Income Farms

The speaker said Navarro county had 3,653 farms in 1945 and that 1,490 of these farms showed a gross income of less than $1,000 a year.

"People on those kinds of farms are not a good customer for anyone," he said. "They contribute practically nothing to city, state and county taxes and to social and spiritual life."

In 1947, he stated, Navarro county produced $15,528,000 in agricultural income and ranked fourth among 25 counties in the area. In 1948, the total income was $11,150,000 and the county ranked 13th. The county's agricultural income in 1949 was $11,700,000 and the county remained in 13th position.

He said such things as the business man's thinking and contribution to conservation, work of agricultural agents and organizations like Farm and Ranch clubs would bring about conservation programs which would result in more and better products.

Speaking about the government's subsidy program for agriculture, he said, "It can't be cut off all at once, but it can't go on forever."

He continued, "when you get something for nothing, the government grows bigger and the people grow smaller."

"We are becoming short of resources," Dawson said, "and if we continue to grow and expect to continue to hold the favor of other nations we must conserve what we have."

Dawson was introduced by Warren Church. George O. Nokes was the program chairman.

Visiting Rotarians at the meeting were S. A. Ellsbury and Albert Fryar, both of Dallas, and George E. Adams, Bryan. Guests included Bob Collique, J. Vernon Harvey, Earl Seale, J. N. Edens, R. W. Knight and Jack Everhart, all of Corsicana; Marvin L. Brown, Dallas, and Ray Acker, Waco.

Soil Conservation District News

District Supervisor Navarro-Hill Soil Conservation District—Morris Crawford, Chairman; W. C. Pearce, Vice-Chairman; Thad Jones, Secretary.

The four top members of the Corsicana High school district championship golf team were awarded letters this week, Coach George Ginerlach announced today.

The coveted "C's" went to Wynne and David Woolley, Claude Roberson and Johnny Garner.

Along with the letters went a trophy for winning the first district championship under the sponsorship of the Interscholastic League. It was purchased by Herbert Pohl of the Corsicana Country Club, and now rests in the trophy case at the high school.

The gold trophy is a tall shaft on a base, surmounted by a golfer in completion of his swing. It is inscribed "Champions of District 13-AA, 1950." Corsicana won the title in a close battle with Waco on April 15.

The players lost out in the play-offs to Highland Park High in Dallas. The Tigers got their revenge for this loss last Saturday, however, when they took a 5-1 to 3-1-2 decision from the Dallasites on the local course.

The four lettermen, only Claude Roberson, whose name is on the trophy, will be back for another year.

Other members of the golf team who will be on hand next season are Orrie Harris, David Cridle, Bobby Galt and Joe Ketchum.

MRS. R. M. MARTIN HONORED AT RECENT MILDRED WMS COMMUNITY MISSION DAY

The Mildred WMS met Monday in the home of Mrs. R. M. Martin, who has been ill for some time. The observance of Community Mission Day was highlighted with the presentation of a colorful potted plant to Mrs. Martin. Mrs. John Hagler presented the gift in the name of the WMS.

The program was opened with "What Friend We Have in Jesus," Mrs. John Hagler offered the opening prayer, and Mrs. Enos Hutson read a poem entitled "Hear the Voice of Jesus" by Daniel March.

Members in attendance told of their association with Mrs. Martin and what she had meant to them, and this feature of the program proved inspiring and impressive.

Mrs. Frank Kent and Bill Perdue sang "Why Does He Love Me So?" with Mrs. Enos Hutson at the piano. Mrs. Frank Kent brought a devotional message on "Love and Friendship," after which a special prayer for the ill and unsaved of the community was offered by Mrs. Lee Buck.

During a short business session, minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. Bill Perdue, secretary. The organization voted to sponsor a concert in the church Sunday, May 27, at 6:30 p. m. and to invite everyone in the community to come and bring a picnic lunch.

Farm Talk—Pasture Improvement Is Studied By County Landowners At Renner TourBy CLYDE E. JOHNSON
Daily Sun Staff.

Navarro county landowners are showing lots of interest in pasture improvement—a project that boosts beef production and prevents soil depletion.

They're getting the idea that soil fertility will pay off for pastures as well as crops.

A study of better pasture management practices was made Tuesday by a group of 21 persons—most of them landowners—in a tour of the Texas Research Foundation at Renner.

Under the direction of County Agent W. H. Walker, the group visited the Foundation's experiment station, which is dedicated to the advancement of agriculture and industry. It is an independent non-profit, non-tax-supported organization established and supported by funds provided by public spirited individuals and corporations.

And, the Foundation doesn't duplicate work that is done at the State experiment stations.

The Navarro county group was advised of 18 different systems of farming were in operation at Renner. In an effort to determine what a balanced system of farming should be—including livestock and a plan that will improve soil fertility and not deplete the soil of its life.

Pastures on the Foundation—those in the cool season and the warm season will, for the first and cross-fertilized, and actual grazing tests conducted to determine the number of pounds of beef produced per acre, the local landowners were told.

Grasses used include orchard grass, smooth bromo grass, alfa fescue grass, black medic, clover and button clover, all in the cool season, and K. R. Bluegrass, Dallis grass, grass, black medic, switchgrass and forage 39 lespezia for summer pasture.

Those making the tour were Jack Lewis, W. S. Price, Hal Bristor, L. I. Griffin, J. Floyd Smith, Allan Bryant, R. M. Lavender, Douglas Clifton, Elmer D. Smith, Marvin Henderson, W. P. Thorpe, Curtis Henderson, Ralph Evans, William Howell, M. V. Hufstutler, County Auditor, E. Y. Cunningham, County Judge, Harry Butler, W. A. Lang, Mitchell Boyd and Walker.

Some farmers say they'll wait about three more weeks and harvest both oats and vetch, the sun-

Congressman Olin Teague says co-operation between farmers and non-farmers is helping put over the federal crop insurance program. He reports from Washington that participation in the program is high. "There are over 1,000 contracts in Navarro county alone," he says. "This represents about 1,600 cotton farms."

Disabled Veterans Manufacturers Of Memorial Poppies

Making memorial poppies to be worn in honor of the dead on Poppy Day, Saturday, is providing employment for thousands of disabled veterans in hospitals throughout the country, according to Mrs. Halle Steely, president of the American Legion Auxiliary, which is sponsoring the local Poppy Sale. The work not only enables the veterans to earn much-needed money, but also is valuable as occupational therapy, she said.

Poppies which will be worn here are being made by patients at the Legion Hospital at Kerrville under the direction of the Poppy Chairman of the American Legion Auxiliary of Texas. They will be distributed on the streets here Poppy Day by volunteer workers from the Auxiliary and co-operating organizations. Contributions received for the little red memorial flowers will go entirely into the rehabilitation and child welfare funds of the Legion and Auxiliary.

Made of Crepe Paper The flowers are made of crepe paper with wire stems and are accurate replicas of the wild poppies of France and Belgium, which grew in such profusion on the battlefields of both world wars. This Flanders' Field's poppy has been the memorial flower of all English-speaking countries ever since the first World War. Millions are worn throughout the world each year, and in addition to keeping the memory of the war dead, they are an important source of funds for the welfare of the disabled veterans and needy children of veterans.

The veterans work on the flowers in their hospital beds, wheel chairs, or in the hospital hobby shops. In some states, special work-rooms

PEACE MESSAGE OF MICAH MEETS NEEDS OF WORLD TODAY

The Prophet's Vision Gives Hope To Our Age—He Foresaw Much That Has Happened—Only Spiritual Qualities Make Any Nation Secure—Bible Promises Peace

By WILLIAM T. ELLIS and EARL L. DOUGLASS.

As Americans turn their thoughts to those who have died in war this season of the year, they will perhaps be comforted as never before for that blessed day when the words of Micah, "they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks."

Micah was one of the first great figures in history to have the vision of world peace. Since his day the dust of countless battles has long period of time blotted out the vision but with the atmosphere has cleared, it appears, unchanged in the distance, bright, clear, and beckoning, but perhaps remote.

Through the ages the weary, have stained peoples of the earth have seen it as a range of celestial mountains standing on the horizon far across the hot and deadly desert of anticipated wars. Each agonizing mile of advance, however, never seems to bring the mountains nearer. Every war to end wars seems to be only a sand dune from which one can observe more dreary wastes still to cross.

Leader of a King. Yet the vision is real. The celestial mountain can be reached. Micah makes that clear. The man Micah of undistinguished origin, was one of a group of prophets in ancient Judah who lived in the days of Good King Hezekiah. Indeed, according to Jeremiah, it was Micah's words that set King Hezekiah upon his path of reform. Micah lived 700 years before Christ in a time when the Jews were falling away from theocracy, and when they had neglected the clear and righteous laws of Moses for pagan practices of greed, oppression, injustice, and luxury. The rich were ever more cruelly richer and the poor were even more bitterly poorer. Nevertheless, like every other man who until up to that time was an incurable optimist, he spoke many stern words about the wickedness of the rich, of the judiciary, of the priesthood; but he never lost his vision of the ultimate triumph of Jehovah's way of peace. He believed God.

Yet Micah was not that added type of optimist who believes that world peace will come naturally and without effort, like the seasons like the spring after winter. On the contrary, the prophet made it plain that world peace would depend on one condition, without which it would be impossible—the recognition and devotion of all nations to God's purpose. The devastation and misery of war will not cease when all nations shall give up to the mountain of Jehovah, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us his ways, and we will walk in his paths." Only then "shall every man sit under his fig tree; and none shall make them afraid; for the mouth of Jehovah of hosts hath spoken it."

Spiritual Preparedness.

The experience of the last 1900 years has certainly proved beyond peradventure of a doubt that political and economic arrangements no matter how well planned and just, are unable to guarantee permanent peace. The Age of Reason, in which the Eighteenth century philosophers put so much trust; the balance of power which seemed like a magical formula to diplomats of the Nineteenth century; national self-determination democracy, which so appealed to Woodrow Wilson—all proved only temporary expedients bridging the gap between wars. Nor did international organizations for discussion and conciliation, like the League of Nations and the World Court prove effective. The present United Nations, far from paving the road to peace, has instead become a propaganda agency through which the nations justify their war preparations.

The plain fact is that permanent peace will only come when all men acknowledge and rigidly adhere to ethical and moral standards which prohibit war. The general acceptance of Christian ethics and the notion which also gives them meaning is the only way to secure permanent peace. Certainly, if only because history has eliminated all other alternatives, we ought to be able to see the truth of this proposition.

The Challenge Today. Peace is not a cause, but a consequence. It is not a root, but a fruit. Before we can have peace we must have justice, righteousness, good will, honor and unselfishness. These are all greater objectives than mere social tranquility. "The wisdom that cometh down from above is first pure, then peaceable," says Scripture. War breeding conditions must change

Diplomas Are Given Graduates In Fine Arts

Graduates of the Fine Arts Department of Corsicana High School were presented in piano and speech recitals at the High School Auditorium Tuesday evening, with Mr. H. R. Stroube, president of the board of education; presenting the diplomas.

In addressing the graduates, Mrs. Stroube said, "I want to congratulate you who have found time in your busy school life to take on something extra—a diploma in fine arts. It is a pleasure to congratulate the parents who have encouraged you and have helped you attain this additional honor. I want to congratulate the fine Music and Speech Teachers Association for giving you the vision of what you could do and keeping you at the task until it was accomplished."

Living Not Enough. Continuing, she said, "Educators have finally learned that it isn't enough simply to teach a person how to make a living. We must teach boys and girls to live, if they are to be happy while they are making a living. This is where literature, music, painting and all of the other arts come in."

Let them who make the quarrel Be the only men to fight. —Jefferys.

Who is a God like unto thee, that pardons iniquity?... He retaineth not his anger forever, because he delighteth in loving kindness. —Micah 7:18.

For heritage of strength and Possessions valued more than wealth;

For friendship of our fellow-men— For these we thank Thee, God. Amen.
